Complex brand promotion

Product sets

Consists of specially designed products, which are intended mainly to stores or retail chains and form a single communication tool and clearly identify the client's products or brands. A typical example of a comprehensive product suite is fully equipped with brand an image operation from its entrance to the interior. The exteriors are highlighted traffic light or non-optic advertising (fascia, stickers, billboards, awnings etc.). The interior product or brand supported by accessories (racks, tray, menu board, tables, etc.).

